682 - The Future of the Federal Role in Transportation

Wednesday, January 25, 8:00am - 9:45am

Marriott, Salon 3

There is agreement that future federal transportation programs should focus on those areas that are in the "national interest". There is much less agreement on what constitutes the national interest. This point/counterpoint discussion on the future federal role in transportation is moderated by Amy Scarton, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy at U.S. DOT.
