Washington, DC

The TRB Committee on Women's Issues in Transportation, [ABE70] invites you to submit papers for the upcoming TRB Annual Meeting in 2006.

Papers are invited on the topics of:

- Environmental justice and women's issues
- Transportation issues in developing countries
  - Demonstrate the importance of access and mobility for the achievement of universal education, gender equity, reductions in maternal mortality. In particular, focus on the role of transport in attaining the Millennium Development Goals.
- Issues related to children's transportation to school
- Sustainable Transport
  - In particular in relation to social exclusion and access to activities with a focus on non-work activities and recreation
- Transit security
- Homeland security and border state issues
  - In relation to the impact on employment that increased homeland security and changes in border state issues have, especially in areas/fields with a largely female workforce.

Papers should discuss these topics from the viewpoint of gender. Other transportation related to emerging or established women's issues in transportation will also be considered for presentation.

Please indicate ABE70 on the Submission Review form to indicate that the paper is being submitted in response to this call for papers.

Papers for the 2006 Annual Meeting must be submitted electronically no later than August 1, 2005.
