TRB Snap Search: Transit Station Cooperative Development

TRB’s involvement in research on Transit Station Cooperative Development from 2016-2020

The Transportation Research Board (TRB) provides innovative, research-based solutions to improve how we move. TRB is part of the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, an independent, non-profit institution that provides objective advice on scientific, engineering, and medical issues.

A resource to the nation and to the transportation community worldwide, TRB provides an extensive portfolio of services:

- Opportunities for information exchange on current transportation research and practice
- Management of cooperative research and other research programs
- Analyses of national transportation policy issues and guidance on federal and other research programs
- Publications and access to research information from around the world

TRB’s Transportation Research Information Services (TRIS)

TRIS includes the TRB Library and the TRIS Databases (listed below) which are available free on TRB’s website.

The TRB Library provides information services to TRB staff, sponsors, TRB Committee members and panels and researchers. Access to the TRB Library is a benefit to TRB sponsors and TRB committee members.

In cooperation with your State DOT Library or Information Service, the TRB Library provides:

- Reference and research assistance
- Literature searches
- Articles for TRB Committee work

The TRB Library provides training on effective and efficient use of the following TRIS resources:

TRID – The world’s largest and most comprehensive bibliographic source on all modes and disciplines of transportation - trid.trb.org

Publications Index (PubsIndex) Database – The papers, articles and reports published by the Transportation Research Board, Highway Research Board, Strategic Highway Research Programs or the Marine Board - pubsindex.trb.org

Research in Progress (RiP) Database – Current or recently completed transportation research projects - rip.trb.org

Research Needs Statements (RNS) – Research needs as identified by TRB Technical Activities standing committees - rns.trb.org
