TRANSPORTATION RESEARCH BOARD

Transportation Research Record (TRR) On-Line Access is now a standard benefit for TRB Organizational Affiliates

The Transportation Research Record: Journal of the Transportation Research Board will be published in electronic format only starting in 2017. TRB will cease producing hard copy editions once all papers accepted for publication prior to July 1, 2016 have been produced in print versions.

Why make this change?

The decision to stop printing the TRR was based on the increasing costs associated with printing and distribution and the fact that many of our customers expressed a preference for on-line access over hard copies.

What does this mean for my organization?

In lieu of a hard copy TRB organizational affiliates will be entitled to on-line access to the 2017 TRR (when available) for any employee logging in from an IP address associated with your organization. This will enable more of your employees to access the TRR in real time without having to wait for a chance to view the hard copy.

How does my organization get set up to access the TRR on-line?

Please contact us at TRBAffiliate@nas.edu or 202-334-3216 and provide the range of IP addresses associated with your organization from which employees will access the TRR. Once your profile has been established access for your organization will be available at www.trrjournalonline.trb.org.

Can we use this benefit immediately?

While all affiliates in good standing will still receive hard copies of all TRRs that are produced in print through 2016 once your organizational profile is established it will include immediate access to any 2016 TRRs produced to date and any new ones that are added. Access to the 2017 TRRs will be available as soon as they are produced and posted to the site.

Does this affect other TRB publications?

At the current time there are no plans to discontinue the printing of the over 100 non TRR related publications that TRB produces and distributes each year. Your organizational affiliate benefits still include hard copies of most other TRB publications.

Questions? Please contact our Subscriptions Coordinator, Cydni Wolfinger at (TRBSales@nas.edu) or 202-334-3213
