3. RIS – Default Format for Reference Management Tools

Regardless of which reference management tool you are using, whether it is installed on your desktop or web-based, this is the option you want to choose when you see the dialog below:

Save Marked Records

Format:

Citation
Plain text format for a reference citation.

Citation & Abstract
Plain text format for a reference citation which also includes the record abstract or description.

RIS
Default format for reference management tools: EndNote, Refworks, etc.

Microsoft Word
Full record output in Microsoft Word document format. Records are separated by page breaks.

XML
Structured output of full record data in XML for use in data transfer or import.

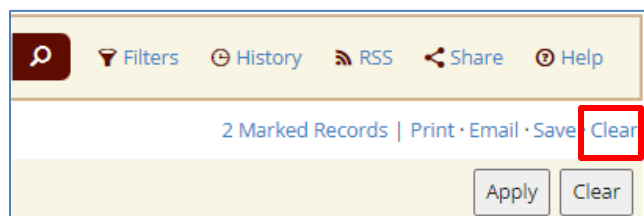

HTML
Full record output as a web page for print or display in a browser.

Click the Download button to initiate.

If you have associated RIS files with your desktop reference management tool in your computer's operating system, you may be able to import the references directly to your open library/collection/database. If necessary, you should be able to manually import the downloaded RIS file.

4. Clear Your Marked Records before Your Next Export

Records that you have marked are retained in the Marked Records feature until you clear them out. Click Clear when you are ready to perform a fresh export.
